Regarding Nora Sova Crest Ames part 2 -

Continuing from where I left off in part 1, starting with giving the information about a key video by Dana I said I would provide.

It was called Tales from the Grift and it was streamed live February 9, 2025.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NYLqn...

Overview -

In this video, she cries and calls out Nora for her and others behavior about the actual pornographic picture posted by an account using Nora's name.

She also comes out against the ENTIRE ex-scientology and protestor movement. She noted that she "had a lot of love for some of y'all, a couple of y'all". Later she noted that "you guys think that it's funny y'all do each other real dirty."

This is her "blanket decision", saying that there is no good team, it's "all of them"

In the video description, she provides a link to her DanaDoodah internet archive where there is a packet of receipts relating to the porn picture, including her communications with Nora.

(We have a screenshot showing it in Dana's archive plus this link will give you the direct internet archive viewer for those who prefer that: https://archive.org/details/s.-a.-f.-...)

* At 15:08 Dana says that "the more well-known ex scientologists who claim to be a victim's Advocate looking out for themselves and not doing the right thing which is pretty [__] disappointing

* At 17:08 she says that "porn was shown on the screen while the panel laughed the person that was showing revenge porn was impersonating a much larger ex Scientology Channel"

[I think it's pretty clear that is a reference to Nora Sova Crest Ames WhatsupwithNora was a previous name of her youtube channel, before she rebranded it yet again. It is now called Nora Knows]

Dana continues: "I notified that individual that individual didn't really do anything besides leave a comment that that wasn't them they didn't even report it even though they claimed to be all about victims rights and like [__] the patriarchy and all this stuff and when I went to go look at the video again all there was was a comment"

* At 20:32 Dana says, "there is no [__] team these [__] are all dirty [__] ex Scientology and the [__] protesters it's all [__] dirty except for the person that got me in contact with who I suspect was in the revenge porn everybody else is [__] guilty everybody you're guilty by association before I was like man you know y'all should just be asking questions I'm [__] done with that none of y'all have my [__] support and that's why this is titled farewell because none of y'all have my [__] support because now I have proof that y'all are just the same if not worse and I understand this is a bold statement - than five foot fuck'all."

"Five foot fuck'all" is a reference to Zero Dark Tony. Proven out at 29:09 where she says: "you guys think that you're different than him and you're not"

Dana is correct that Nora and others we know of are all corrupt. We told her this from the jump. But trying to compare or include US with them? She is 100 percent wrong on that.

We also warned her early on that if she associates or is truly friends with and works with us, she will be put through (by them and their handlers all the way up) a gauntlet like she has never even imagined.

Making a blanket assumption that knocks out people that aren't that way, like us, for example, only serves the intelligence masters.

A few more points -

* At 31:08 Dana says: "narratives are really powerful and these people have been fooling everybody for a long [__] time"

Kudos to Dana, that would be 100 percent correct, if only you excluded us.

She continues: "well guess what I've listened to a thousand apology tours I've been transparent as [__] there is nothing nothing that any of you can say or do that will make you any different than zero dark Tony and I hope that the laugh was worth it you should all be ashamed of yourselves but I want nothing to [__] do with y'all don't bring up my name uh you know maybe I'll put together video where I you know redact the necessary information you'll be real [__] surprised at one of the big ex Scientology channels uh who's involved in this little situation sometimes those who make the most noise it ain't for the reasons that you think"

That looks to be another reference to Nora Sova Crest Ames and her then quite large youtube channel, comparatively. If I'm correct about that, at this point I one hundred percent agree in Dana's assessment of Nora.

Coming around full circle now to the beginning of part 1 -

What was one of the main reasons that Nora attacked the heck out of Loren Spethman, trying to bully him into silence, to get him to not talk about the Dana and Tony video that was validly bringing to light elements of both Nora and her fathers histories?

Alleged by Nora "pornographic images" (see screenshot) supposedly in Tony and Dana's video.

And yet, when a REAL pornographic image is done bearing her channel name that she could take REAL legal action with?

Crickets.

That is not good, and I say it begs the same questions and points we made back in 2016 about Nora and who she associates with and serves the agenda of, in the first place.

(that 2016 post is archived here https://web.archive.org/web/202403050...)

That concludes a foray into, as I said in part 1 - "the vortex of the evil within the controlled opposition of the pretend ex-scientologists and supposed anti-scientology protesters."
